

The Daily Prothom Alo

16 September 2009

Translation of News Clippings

Website of Kakohat Paurashava

Kakonhat paurashava under Godagari upazila in Rajshahi district has launched its website. Member of Parliament from Godagari-Tanore constituency Mr. Omar Faruque Chowdhury formally inaugurated the website yesterday at the planning meeting held for making the Kankonhat as a model paurashava. The planning meeting was followed by a public gathering and milad mahfil (Special prayer). Mr. Omar Faruque expressed his determination for making the paurahsava as a model one. He called upon the citizens of the paurashava as well as donor agencies to support this initiative. He expressed his gratitude to the representatives of the World Bank for supporting Citywide Sanitation and construction of website. He called upon various development partners and donors to work for the development of the people of this part of the country. Inaugurating the website Mr. Omar Faruque said from now on people from across the country are able to see the different activities of Kakonhat paurashava. Chaired by the Mayor of Kakonhat paurashava Mr. Abdul Mazid, the function was addressed by Sanitation Specialist of the WSP-World Bank Mr. Mark Ellery, Joint Secretary of the Ministry of Establishment Mr. Shafiqul Islam and Senior Decentralization Specialist of WSP-World Bank Mr. Santanu Lahiri. The function was attended among others by Chairmen of Godagari upazila Mr. Aatur Rahman Khan and Upazila Nirbahi Officer (UNO) Julia Moin.

Reporter: Abul Kalam Muhammad Azad- Rajshahi